

WHITNEY PLANTATION

The Plantation Tour Critical Thinking Analysis

Directions: Use your judgement and critical eye to examine marketing materials for plantations in the United States. Look carefully at each one to answer the questions below. After you have finished, we will have a discussion about things that you saw and noticed.

Example One

1. What is this an advertisement for?
2. What is the first thing about it that you notice?
3. Look carefully at what is being presented to you – what emotions or reactions are the people making, does ask you to feel a certain way? How do you know?
4. What message about plantations is this showing?
5. What message about history is this presenting?

Example Two

1. What is this an advertisement for?
2. What is the first thing about it that you notice?
3. Look carefully at what is being presented to you – what emotions or reactions are the people making, does ask you to feel a certain way? How do you know?

4. What message about plantations is this showing?

5. What message about history is this presenting?

Example Three

1. What is this an advertisement for?

2. What is the first thing about it that you notice?

3. Look carefully at what is being presented to you – what emotions or reactions are the people making, does ask you to feel a certain way? How do you know?

4. What message about plantations is this showing?

5. What message about history is this presenting?